Student Assistance Program

Want to know more about the Student Assistance Program and what it can do for you?

What is a Student Assistance Program?
Sometimes it seems like one problem turns into another, growing larger and larger. These problems can affect not only your personal life, but also your academic performance. When experiencing a problem you can't seem to manage on your own, talking with a professional counselor may help. Confidential help is available to you through your college. We will work with you to manage your social, emotional and mental health.

How do I use the Student Assistance Program?
Accessing the Student Assistance Program is easy!

- Call 1-800-992-6292.
- State that you are using the Student Assistance Program.
- Identify which college you attend.

The admissions counselor will assist you in arranging an appointment at a time and location convenient to you.

Is there a cost?
No. This is a service your college provides to you at no charge.
